WITHDRAWAL OF ATTORNEY

- SECOND REQUEST -

Richard A. Bertsch
Group 3600

RECEIVED
APR 20 1999
GROUP 3600

Please take note that the undersigned Attorney for Applicant herewith again withdraws from any further representation in this application. The first such Request was filed in the PTO on July 15, 1998.

Applicant discharged Attorney on July 10, 1998 and has retained other counsel for the prosecution of this application. It is believed that the new Counsel has been in correspondence with the PTO because a Continued Prosecution Application (CPA) request had been filed on February 26, 1999 and accepted by the PTO.

Applicant has been given due notice of and/or has requested the prior withdrawal of Attorney from employment and representation of Applicant in this application.

All papers and property in the attorney's file concerning the prosecution of the application have been delivered to the Applicant on July 17, 1998.

DKT. No.: TMI-1

The undersigned Attorney is not certain of the name or address of current counsel. In order that contact can be maintained with the Applicant and so that the instant application does not go abandoned inadvertently, the PTO is again instructed that the Applicant's address and pertinent information are believed to be as follows:

TEAM MFG. INC.
Attn: Mr. Ed Ellis
2625 Homestead Place
Rancho Dominguez, CA 90220

Again, the PTO is requested to please direct all further communications relative to this application to the Applicant. Directing communications to the undersigned merely unduly delays delivery to the Applicant.

Respectfully submitted,

G. Donald Weber, Jr.
Attorney for Applicant
